Subject: Response to Chief on Hunzeker matter

Chief Lovell,

I have given serious consideration to your recommendation for the outcome for Officer Hunzeker. I understand that a 12-week suspension is significant and is an extremely rare outcome in disciplinary matters, as you usually recommend either a suspension of up to 3 weeks or termination. You and I agree about this matter in all points, except that in balance, I think that the seriousness of the conduct warrants termination rather than a 12-week suspension. With all respect to you as the Chief, I cannot support a suspension in this case due to the harm caused by his conduct and the egregiousness of his actions. I therefore must direct you to change the outcome from a lengthy suspension to termination.
